

MICROSOFT POWER BI DEVELOPER/SOLUTION SPECIALIST

EnterpriseWorx is a Johannesburg-based IT company with areas of expertise including business intelligence, data management and application development, as well as an array of solutions tailored to address clients' specific needs.

Established in 2003, we've become specialists in using the power of technology and information to give organisations a competitive edge. To this end, we prioritise global best practices, agile methods, superior technology and the highest-calibre people and process optimisation, and we support all services with first-class IT project management and business analysis.

Job Description:

Position Overview

- To develop and implement Power BI solutions and enhancements, working from high level technical requirements specifications in line with business requirements.
- Design and develop Power BI data models using Power Query to best practice specifications from traditional sources e.g.: Data warehouse, Excel, common DB platforms, CSV etc.
- Develop, deploy, share, automate and maintain Power BI solutions.
- Develop with Power BI best practice coding standards and guidelines.
- Quality assurance checks on all new Power BI project functionality and business requirements.
- Creation and maintenance of Power BI technical documentation.

Key Experience Requirements:

- 2-3 Years Microsoft Power BI Development experience (Front and backend).
- Good working knowledge of Power BI architecture, deployment, sharing, security and best practices.
- Ability to work Independently and deliver on dashboard and report deliverables from a technical specification.
- Solid experience with testing Power BI dashboard and report to ensure they meet customer expectations.
- Solid experience SQL database query and data balancing.

Experience in the some of the following would be a distinct advantage but is not essential:

- SQL Developer/ Data Warehouse skills with MS T-SQL
- ETL SSIS Skills